

Sarah Ryglewski

Social Democratic Party of Germany (SPD)

Political scientist

Born on 31 January 1983 in Cologne.

Obtained Abitur (higher-education entrance qualification) in 2002; studied political science at the University of Bremen from 2002 to 2009.

Member of the SPD since 2001; member of the executive committee of the Young Socialists Bremen (youth section of the SPD) from 2006 to 2008 and chairwoman of the Young Socialists Bremen from 2008 to 2012; member of the executive committee of the Neustadt local branch of the SPD since 2008 and deputy chairwoman of the committee since 2012; deputy chairwoman of the SPD Bremen since 2010; spokeswoman for the SPD's federal forum on consumer policy; district manager for the Osterfeuerberg and Woltmershausen districts of Bremen from 2009 to 2011; member of the Bremen House of Representatives from 2011 to 2015; spokeswoman of the SPD parliamentary group on consumer policy.

Member of the German Bundestag since July 2015; member of the finance committee; deputy spokeswoman of the committee on legal affairs and consumer protection; deputy spokeswoman of the municipalities working group; member of the financial market watchdog committee; deputy member of the digital world watchdog committee.

Member of the executive committee of the SPD since 2017.

Member of the United Services Union (ver.di) and the Neustadt business interest group WiR; executive member of the administrative board of the Bremen consumer organization.

Membership of Bundestag bodies

Member

- Finance Committee
- Legal Affairs and Consumer Protection Committee

Deputy member

- Family Affairs, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth